4.20 Injunction. Each Party acknowledges that a breach by the Contractor or any of the Contractor's representatives of any obligation under this Agreement and/or any Non-Disclosure Agreement may cause irreparable harm to the Company which may be difficult or impossible to ascertain, and that an award of damages, including the Pre-Negotiated Damages, will not be a sufficient remedy for such breach. Accordingly, the Company will be entitled to specific and strict performance of this Agreement and an injunction to prevent any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement, without having to show any actual damage or that monetary damages would not provide an adequate remedy, and without any bond or other security being required. No remedy is exclusive, but each is cumulative and in addition to any other remedy otherwise available at law or in equity, including the Pre-Negotiated Damages.

4.21 Reapplication. If the contractual relationship between the Parties is terminated for any reason whatsoever, whether with or without cause, whether by the Contractor or by the Company, and if the Parties later enter into a contractual relationship with each other, this Agreement will be applicable to such new contractual relationship as if there had been no interruption of the relationship, without the necessity for the execution of a new agreement between the Parties.

4.22 Ordinances and Statutes. Each Party shall comply with all Municipal, Provincial, State and Federal laws, statutes, and ordinances now in effect, or which shall be enacted in the future, and any violation of such shall be a complete and material breach of this Agreement.

4.23 Acknowledgements. It is expressly understood and agreed and the Parties hereby represent and covenant to each other that they have read this Agreement in its entirety, agree to it, have been given a copy, and have been advised by their respective solicitors with respect to the contents herein, and fully understand the terms and legal effect of this Agreement.

4.24 Assignment. The Contractor shall not be permitted the right to assign or transfer this Agreement, any interest herein, and/or its obligations and/or responsibilities under this Agreement. The Company has the right to assign or transfer this Agreement with no further notice to the Contractor and upon such assignment or transfer the Company shall have no further liability, personal or otherwise, for or under this Agreement.

4.25 Currency. Unless otherwise specified in this Agreement, all dollar amounts referred to in this Agreement are in lawful money of Canada, which at the Effective Date are known as Canadian Dollars.

4.26 Publicity. The Contractor understands and agrees that they are not a representative for the Company and are not authorized to make public statements to any third parties, including members of the media, on the Company's behalf. Should the Contractor be approached by any third parties requesting a public statement, the Contractor agrees to direct such individuals to the Company's headquarters where the request can be directed to a Company representative authorized to speak to the public.

4.27 Personal Pronouns. It is expressly understood and agreed by all Parties that all words and personal pronouns in this Agreement shall be read and construed as agreeing with the number and gender of the party or parties referred to in each case as required and the verb shall be construed as agreeing with the required word and/or pronoun as required, the "Reading", and such Reading shall ensure the maximum of extent, time, scope and any and all other limitations available within the terms, provisions and definitions of this Agreement.

4.28 Non-limiting. The word "including", when following any general statement, will be construed to refer to all other things that could reasonably fall within the scope of such general statement, whether or not non-limiting language (such as "without limitation" or "without limiting the generality of the foregoing") is used with reference thereto. Terms such as "hereunder" and "herein" refer to this Agreement as a whole and are not limited to any specific provision or provisions of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS thereof, the Contractor has indicated their acceptance to be bound by all the terms and conditions of this Agreement as aforementioned, and the Company accepts this Agreement as written and without modification as of the Effective Date.
